

New York Shopping Christmas Gift Package

NEW YORK SHOPPING EXPERIENCE

With a patchwork of department stores, luxury boutiques, and indie shops scattered throughout the city, New York could be deemed a shopper's paradise.

New York's Fifth Avenue is the city's most famous shopping street, and probably the most famous shopping street in the world. Here, you can find flagship stores for nearly every high-end designer - Louis Vuitton, Tiffany & Co., Gucci, Prada, Valentino, Armani, Fendi, and more. For walkers SoHo is the perfect NYC shopping neighbourhood with a unique mix of high-end designer stores and mid to low-end shops that appeal to every type of shopper.

For a quieter shopping experience, explore the boutiques on the Upper East Side where the shops are smaller, but the items you'll find in them are truly one of a kind. And of course don't forget the must see department stores of Macy's and Bloomingdales for your little Brown Bag!

Enough of the shopping, then try the High Line, a free raised path built on a section of an abandoned railway. The High Line is just a few blocks from the Chelsea Market, so grab lunch first, then walk off those tacos on the High Line.

Another item on your list of must sees is the Brooklyn Bridge, one of the most iconic bridges in the world. It takes about 20 minutes to walk fully across while taking pictures and dodging people. For great photos, the best time to go is in the morning when there will be fewer people and the lighting is beautiful.
