With two world-class golf courses consistently ranked among the best in Europe, PGA Catalunya Resort has everything the discerning golfer could wish for.

Home to the Spanish Open on three occasions and to the No.1 ranked golf course in Spain, the resort is a regular venue for European Tour tournaments. Considered to be one of Spain's greatest golf courses, the PGA Catalunya's Stadium Course is one of those layouts that every golfer should tackle at least once in their lifetime but be prepared for a challenge, old oak trees, evergreens, heather and numerous water hazards are just some of the obstacles that will require careful negotiation.

The Tour Course at the PGA Catalunya is a par-72 parkland/woodland track and of similar quality, to its brother, the Stadium Course, but is a shorter and offers a little more leeway off the tee.
