Dubrovnik

on your own

On a hot summers day, do as the Dubrovnik nobility did and go beyond the walls to enjoy the stunning surroundings - easily accessed from your hotel. The quick hop to Lokrum Island, has a wonderful escapist feel to it – the view of the towering walls soon to be upstaged by the island locals call the “Emerald of Dubrovnik.” Peacocks strut about mingling with rabbits as you wind your way along trails to romantic ruins of the Benedictine monastery, olive groves, and your ideal swim spot. The hum of crickets will be the soundtrack of the day. Also reached by a cruise along the coast, Cavtat has the laid back feel of a Mediterranean seaside village. Palm trees, cafes and crowd-free restaurants line the calm bay flanked by pine covered peninsulas. If remaining shore side suits you – stroll up from Ploce gate past cliff hugging villas and gardens of bougainvillea, lemon and fig trees, to the pebbled beach, Sv. Jakov (St. Jacob). Another great view of Dubrovnik, as you bob in the sea. For a chic “designer cocktail” beach experience, Coral Bay beach (Babin Kuk), or More Cave bar/terrace (Lapad) will float your boat. To the heights, panoramic vistas are abundant in Croatia, but the view from the ridges of Srđ takes top prize—particularly rewarding if you bypass the cable car and trek up! For a locals secret, and a romantic view likely to yourself - a moderate hike to the ruins of a small chapel (St. Orsula). Top your day off perfectly at one of the Buza bars perched on the cliffs under the towering walls – pretty fabulous as the sun dips down, the swallows and seagulls playing in the breeze and boats trolling by below.

DAY 2

DUBROVNIK

Stories of Dubrovnik Private guided walking tour of Dubrovnik Old Town

Enjoy your morning at leisure.

Meet your local guide in the afternoon hours for a pleasant and engaging walk through Dubrovnik's Old Town highlights including a visit to two of the most significant museums and City Walls.

A magnificent city with its incredible fortified Old Town, Dubrovnik is a UNESCO World Heritage site, and undoubtedly Croatia's most popular destination. The curtain of towering walls surrounds a tidy concentration of marble streets and baroque buildings exuding a pearly light in the Adriatic sun. The main pedestrian thoroughfare, Placa (Stradun), in all its white stone brilliance smoothed by centuries of wear, is a wonderful mélange of cafés and shops bookended by a cluster of important monuments at either end. Splendid churches, monasteries and museums are ornamented with finely carved stone facades recalling an eventful, illustrious history and a vibrant artistic tradition of a proud, resilient city.

After the tour return to hotel on your own and enjoy the remainder of your day at leisure.

Unforgettable Views

*Private sea kayak adventure under the
City Walls*

Horseback Riding in Konavle

Private horseback riding in the countryside at Kojan Koral ranch

In the morning hours, a wonderful experience of kayaking under the City Walls of Dubrovnik awaits you! You will be met by your local guide in the lobby for a short transfer to the nearby Banje beach – the starting point of your private exciting sea kayaking adventure.

Before setting out towards the island of Lokrum, you will pass directly under the magnificent City Walls! This is where you will really be awed by Dubrovnik’s magnificence. Your paddles will take you to the otherwise unreachable caves and hidden beaches, and plenty of views of Dubrovnik that are only seen from this perspective. You will have a short stop on the wonderful island of Lokrum; so beloved that the locals call it the “emerald of Dubrovnik.” Explore the monastery ruins and botanical gardens or relax in a café over refreshing drinks before returning to the mainland.

In the afternoon, meet your private chauffeur and depart to Konavle Region for a horseback ride at a truly unique location. Kojan Koral Ranch was founded in 2003 in the stunning countryside of Konavle with an idea to introduce the guests to the wilderness of the region. It was the owner’s desire to own horses and have others come to his ranch to enjoy all the perks of horse riding on their vacation. Known for its beautiful location, the ranch has seven magnificent horses that are treated like family members.

Enjoy your afternoon experiencing the Konavle countryside in the best possible way before returning to Dubrovnik to enjoy the rest of the evening at leisure.

Hotel: Kompas 4*, Dubrovnik

The Honey Valley is a haven for many domestic animals and as such is an ideal picnic spot for parents with young children. Children here can get acquainted with many animals that cannot be seen in urban areas. There are horses, dwarf ponies, mares, donkeys (loads), sheep with lambs, goats, chickens, ducks and exotic poultry, Vietnamese pigs, small and large rabbits and other domestic animals, and under the supervision of employees it is possible to ride horses and ponies.

DAY 5

DUBROVNIK – HVAR

Adriatic Gems
*Private motorboat
transfer to Hvar Island with en route stop on Korčula Island*

Check out after breakfast and meet your private chauffeur for a short transfer to the marina where your skipper will welcome you aboard of your private motorboat. Head out toward Hvar Island. En route, stop on Korčula Island to enjoy some exploration of the Old Town.

Like most of the Croatian islands, the Greeks, who gave it the name Korkyra Melaina or 'Black Corfu' for its dense forests, had good taste and first settled Korčula. The island itself is rich in art and culture, as well as being remarkably beautiful for its unspoiled nature. The island is blanketed in green pines, with numerous tiny and secluded beaches and bays, ancient villages and hilltops that boast panoramic views. Although very a compact town, Korčula's steep cobblestone alleys that span off the main pedestrian street in a pattern like a fish bone, hold enough art, architecture and unique local culture to keep you enthralled at each turn. Traditional crafts and unsurpassed skills in stone masonry and shipbuilding that have made Korčula so beautiful are almost as legendary as its most famous world travelling son, Marco Polo.

Aftwards, continue to Hvar. Blessed with 2724 hours of sunshine every year, the lavender island of Hvar is also called the "Croatian Madeira". The sunny days, the surrounding crystal blue waters with seductive nearby islands, ancient villages, innumerable lavender fields, olive plantations and vineyards, enchanting stone streets and old Venetian palaces are only some of the reasons why everybody today is talking about Hvar.

Upon arrival, check in to Hotel Amfora 4*. Tucked away in a tranquil bay, surrounded by a lush pine grove and only a short 10-minute walk from the historical city of Hvar is the Hotel Amfora. Hvar's grand beach resort is the most exciting one on the coast. Its contemporary rooms with breathtaking views of the Paklinski Islands, spectacular cascading pool with lounge area and diverse amenities, such as state-of-the-art conference facilities, make this unique self-contained destination resort ideal not only for couples and family vacations but also for special business events from team building incentives, large meetings and conferences to banquets and workshops.

DAY 6

HVAR

Kayaking through the Archipelago

Private sea kayak of the Pakleni Archipelago

The starting point of your kayaking tour is in the town of Hvar. You will set off toward a group of small islands called the Pakleni. The origin of the name goes back to days when the islands were the main source of rosin for local shipbuilders. Today, just like in the past, the islands are covered with thick pine woods providing refreshing shade even during the hottest summer days. The route through narrow straits and along the islands reveals small hidden pebble beaches where you can enjoy the privilege of having, at least temporarily, a beach to yourself, for swimming, snorkeling and relaxing.

Return to Hvar will follow the tour. Enjoy the rest of the day at leisure.

Hotel: Amfora 4*, Hvar

Meals: Breakfast

DAY 7 & 8

HVAR

Days at leisure

Enjoy these days in Hvar at leisure relaxing, sunbathing or exploring the area on your own.

OPTIONAL EXTRA: Cycling tour of the island of Hvar

Your moderate bike tour takes you to the interior of the island. Beginning with a shuttle (20 min) from Hvar Town to the seaside village of Milna, where we will then hop on our bikes and start towards Malo Grablje, an abandoned village situated in the foothills of the cliffs and a perfect spot for a break to explore the cluster of ancient stone buildings and narrow alleys slowly being taken over by nature - the aromatic scent of Mediterranean herbs filling the air.

We will continue uphill, towards Velo Grablje, another abandoned village with a current population of only a dozen people. The hidden location, dramatic setting backed by cliffs, traditional architecture, and the stories of Velo Grablje, make it one of the most interesting villages of Hvar island.

The interior of Hvar is rich with Mediterranean fruits, herbs and plants. Carob, fig, almond trees, pomegranate, lemons and wild oranges. You will hear the story of how the production of lavender and lavender oils was important for this small village that was during the 20thc. the islands largest producer of the herb - and why there are now only a few people involved. We will have a pleasant break for some rest and photos.

Onwards downhill to Brusje, with a stop at a viewpoint. Once a shepherd's village, now famous for its wines, olive oils and honey, tiny Brusje has an authentic, rural Dalmatian atmosphere. From this point in your journey, you will have two options for the remainder of your tour, and your return route to Hvar city.

The easier route travels downhill on a paved road – or you may choose the slightly more challenging gravel road route.

Return to the hotel and enjoy the remainder of your day at leisure.

Hotel: Amfora 4*, Hvar

Meals: Breakfast

Hvar

on your own

Hvar is both flashy and fantastically rustic. As a cocktail, Hvar town is a chic martini, infused with lavender - enjoyed by a long legged Bond girl, or alternately, a simple glass of rich red Plavac wine in the hands of a salty haired fisherman in a striped shirt. Find the Hvar, you wish it to be.

Beyond the show stopping, Venetian splendor of Hvar town's elegant main square, steps lead to art galleries, quirky shops, and hole in the wall wine bars. The further you stroll the reaches of the promenade, more choices of a spot to spread your towel will appear-though the music and stylish loungers of Hula Hula may nab you first. Take something of Hvar with you: Lavender and Lace-soap to chocolate, the lavender grown across the hills of the island is crafted into everything nice. From giant agave plants that line the beaches, Benedictine nuns handcraft lace - a UNESCO heritage.

Be beckoned to the green islets just outside the harbor - the Pakleni islands where again you can find everything from the beat of an ultra chic lounge bar to the au natural nudist beach Jerolim. Hvar offers as much sleepy Mediterranean charm as it does glamour. Pocket sized villages like Milna, and Humac, seductively peaceful.

Work up an appetite via the easy path to lofty views from Spanjolska fort, commanding over the glorious Hvar harbor, or get historically inspired for indulgence - Episcopal museum holds a golden chalice, and the Franciscan monastery; its striking 8m long Last Supper masterpiece. Find your ideal spot for sundown and seafood. Perhaps a gregada (fish stew), and a 'chalice' full of your liking before you dance the night away.

DAY 9

HVAR – SPLIT

Adriatic Dream
Private motorboat transfer to Split with en route visit to the Pakleni Archipelago

Check out after breakfast and meet your skipper to board your private motorboat for a transfer to Split. En route, stop on Pakleni Islands and enjoy the day having fun snorkeling and swimming. Pakleni Archipelago is located off the southwest coast of the island of Hvar. The name is popularly translated as Hell Islands (Pakleni = 'hellish'), but it is derived from paklina, an archaic word that means "tar" and in this case refers to the pine resin once used to coat ships, harvested on these islands.

Upon arrival to Split in the afternoon, check in to Hotel Radisson Blu Resort 4*. Located along the stunning, crystal-clear Adriatic Sea, the brand-new Radisson Blu Resort enchants with a pebble beach, two pools, three restaurants and four chic bars. This Adriatic seaside hotel in Split counts 250 modern, stylish guest rooms, including 28 suites and two exclusive Presidential Suites. Split's lively nightlife and a great choice of restaurants are also just a stone's throw away. Settle in and enjoy the rest of the day at leisure.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION: Private motorboat extension visit to the Blue Cave near islands of Biševo and Vis
The most distant inhabited islands, and historically isolated, the islands of Vis and Biševo are truly special in an untouched and charmingly remote way. The tiny Biševo has less than 20 residents, and Vis, as a Yugoslav military base, was closed off to visitors for almost 40 years keeping these islands in a sort of preserved and unspoiled limbo that gives them a distinct charm, the surrounding waters being among of the most pristine in Dalmatia. At the Blue Cave (cro. Modra Špilja), on a sunny midday, the sunlight beams through an underwater passage so the effect of the sea bottom reflects and illuminates the cave with a magical glowing azure color, which is nothing short of incredible. Afterwards, continue to Split, check in and enjoy the rest of the day at leisure.
